

INEF co-organizes Workshop on „Peace and Conflict Studies in Practice”

When: Friday, 27th June, 2008, 9.00 am - 5.45 pm

Where: Gerhard-Mercator-Haus (Lotharstraße 57) in Duisburg.

Organizer: Department of International Relations and Development Policy of the Institute of Political Science at the University of Duisburg-Essen

In cooperation with:

- UNIAKTIV (Centre for community learning and social responsibility)
- Institute for Development and Peace (INEF)
- Association of Friends and Supporters of the Institute of Political Science (Verein der Freunde und Förderer der Politikwissenschaft (VdFuF))

The following speakers will inform about 100 expected students from the Bachelor in Political Science and the Master in International Relations and Development Policy about career perspectives and the daily working practice in the field of Peace and Conflict Studies:

- Silke von Brockhausen, United Nations Regional Information Centre (UNRIC), Associate Information Officer
- Romy Stanzel, German Development Service (DED), Working group Civil Conflict Transformation and Peace-Building
- Friederike Kugler, Barbara Dünneweller, Kindernoethilfe, Advocacy work on the topic of child soldiers
- Peter Croll, Direktor, Bonn International Center for Conversion (BICC)
- Christoph Bleis, German Technical Cooperation (GTZ), Sector Crisis Prevention and Peace Building
- Natascha Zupan, Team leader of the Working Group on Development and Peace (FriEnt)
- Stefanie Krug-Rohn, Institute for Foreign Cultural Relations (IFA), Civil Conflict Resolution (zivik)
- Lieutenant Colonel Dieter Bohnert, German Federal Armed Forces, Civil Military Cooperation

The workshop ends with the projection of the documentary “War is Business”.

Participation is open to all who are interested!